

Whereas,

The Byron Historical Society is charged with the duties of overseeing the archived materials of the Byron Museum, and

Whereas,

From time to time, articles are found to no longer serve the historical purposes intended, or are of a size unable to properly house, and

Whereas,

New York Board of Regents requires approval for de-accessioning of archived materials by the town Board, so

Therefore, be it Resolved,

The Byron Town Board approves the de-accessioning of a collection of law books dated 1806 through early 1900's from the Byron Museum archives. This collection is to be donated to The Genesee County Department of History to be added to their collection.